Rush Transportation and Logistics celebrates 37 years in business with new headquarters

HARRISON TWP., Ohio – A Dayton-based transportation and logistics company is preparing to officially open the doors to its new headquarters.

Rush Transportation and Logistics moved from Moraine to a larger facility at 2619 Needmore Road in Harrison Township.

Rush officials said the 35,000 square foot location will have more office space, a larger warehouse and more than 4 acres of parking for its fleet of trucks.

The opening of the new headquarters also marks an important Rush milestone – 37 years in business.

“Rush has been headquartered in Dayton since 1981 and we are grateful for the growth we have experienced and the opportunity to provide jobs in Dayton as well as in our Cincinnati and Columbus terminals,” said Ashley Von Derau, president, Rush Transportation and Logistics. “We will continue to be a premier same day delivery company serving the Midwest region.”

Rush employs 150 people and contracts with additional 125, but with the new, larger location, Rush is actively hiring drivers to expand its fleet.

An April 26th ribbon cutting and open house will include beverages, Hors d’ oeuvres, tours of the facility and a look inside a truck from the driver’s point of view.
