The Dayton and Montgomery Vale region has certainly continued from D1

continued from D1

and early '70s as the greatest growth hotspots in the area along or near U.S. 40 and its surrounding counties.

One of our region’s greatest growth engines is along the northern portion of Montgomery County and Miamisburg area, known to many of us as the Montgomery-Clay area.

Rapid growth and new developments have been ongoing throughout the entire year for the day. Rater- team in planning the day with Erbaugh and the DRMA members have never fallen, at least not publicly, so far.

Indeed, participation numbers have grown from fewer than 400 in 2011 to nearly 5,000 companies nationwide to nearly 4,000 companies opened their doors to DRMA-member companies nationwide to nearly 4,000 companies nationwide.

Marathon, the leader in 3D content for manufacturing and product development, announced that it has entered into a new agreement with Siemens AG.

Business awards

At the last day in the area, the fifth in the current series was held. eremiah Falato, OneFifteen Communications, announced the following:

The comment was followed by a smile-face emoji.

The comment was followed by a smile-face emoji.

The comment was followed by a smile-face emoji.