Dayton Area Chamber preparing area businesses for Coronavirus response

Chamber has launched a Coronavirus Resource Guide at DaytonChamber.org; planned upcoming event to provide latest response information

DAYTON, Ohio – As employers in the Dayton region navigate uncharted territory during our country's response to the spread of the Coronavirus, the Dayton Area Chamber of Commerce has compiled a Coronavirus Resource Guide specifically for employers.

Working with Public Health - Dayton/Montgomery County, the Association of Chamber of Commerce Executives (ACCE), and the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, the guide at DaytonChamber.org will be updated when new and relevant information is available.

Included on the Resource Guide page:

- Workplace Flyers for prevention
- Pandemic Guidance
- Travel Guidance from the CDC
- Planning Recommendations for Mass Gatherings
- Guidance for Preparing Workplaces from OSHA
- Preparedness Planning Guidance for U.S. Businesses with Overseas Operations
- Legal Guidance on Workplace Pandemic Planning
- A Checklist for Multinational Employers

In addition to this guide, the chamber's Dayton/Miami Valley Safety Council will host Public Health - Dayton/Montgomery County Commissioner Jeff Cooper for an in-depth talk about prevention, promotion and protection in the workplace. Commissioner Cooper will share updates with an audience of safety professionals from chamber member businesses located throughout the Dayton region.

The Safety Council event will be held Thursday, March 19, 2020 from 7:30am – 9am at The Mandalay (2700 E. River Road, Dayton, OH 45439). Registration is required. Register at DaytonChamber.org.
