Dayton Area Chamber marks 114 years with annual meeting
Awards given for Diversity & Inclusion, chamber supporters and more

DAYTON, Ohio – The Dayton Area Chamber of Commerce welcomed its membership to the WinSupply Center for Leadership for its 115th Annual Meeting today (May 26, 2021), to review the chamber's work supporting businesses in 2020, and look ahead to the remainder of 2021.

This year's Annual Meeting was the first large-scale in person event for the Dayton Area Chamber of Commerce since the start of the COVID-19 pandemic. Social distancing allowed for a limited attendance of nearly 350 people.

2020 ANNUAL REPORT

During the event, the chamber released its 2020 Annual Report in the form of a video. Below are a few of the highlights of the chamber's work in the previous year:

- COVID Response
 - Immediately moved to connect member businesses to vital information, including virtual sessions with experts in employment law, insurance, business continuity, disaster response, human resources, and the Small Business Administration.
 - Engaged in regular communication with elected officials, especially at the Governor's Office, to relay business needs while emergency response plans and relief packages were being formed.
 - Worked alongside Montgomery County Office of CARES Act to provide PPP funding to 13,000 small businesses across the region, with a focus on reaching historically underserved businesses that were either ineligible or unable to receive funding from previous rounds.
 - Distributed $719,000 to 119 small downtown Dayton businesses through the ReOpen Downtown Dayton grant program thanks to partnership with the Downtown Dayton Partnership and the generosity of the CareSource Foundation.
- Uplifting the Underserved
 - Launched REACH!, an entrepreneurial training program for the formerly incarcerated.
 - Distributed $30,000 to 14 small, minority-owned businesses.
 - Declared racism a Public Health Crisis. 89 chamber member businesses signed a letter of commitment.
 - Hosted a racial injustice roundtable with 70 business leaders.
 - Welcomed 100 attendees to our annual Workplace Diversity & Inclusion Forum.
- Membership & Member Services
 - 6,124 virtual event attendees
 - 138 new chamber members
 - 89% member retention rate
 - Welcomed new president & CEO, Chris Kershner
