Share your ideas and show off your citizenship skills in the National Civics Bee.

About the Bee

The National Civics Bee is an annual competition that encourages young Americans to engage in civics and contribute to their communities. In the first round of the contest, local middle school students will participate in an essay competition. Judges will then select 20 finalists to participate in the local competition: a live quiz event testing civics knowledge. Then, the top 3 students from each local competition will advance to the state competition.

Essay Topic

Identify a problem facing your community. How might a citizen solve the problem?

Write a 500-word essay, two pages, double-spaced, that includes the following:

- What way can you contribute to your community? How might others view this problem or opportunity differently?
- What are the ways you can approach this issue?
- What is your idea or recommendation?
- What sources provide supporting evidence or examples for your idea or recommendation?
- How might members of your community or neighborhood bring your idea or recommendation to life?
- Who might oppose your idea? How might you respond?

Judging Criteria

Your essay will be evaluated based on how well you:

- Demonstrate an understanding of civics.
- Acknowledge and address opposing points of view.
- Acknowledge and address at least one Founding Principle and one Civic Virtue.
- Use primary sources, like newspapers, data, historical documents, images, or other documents that relate to your idea.
- Clearly describe an idea innovative or new to you.

Best of Luck!
