

Unemployment solutions

Client Education Program

2024 series

Sedgwick is offering a free multiple part educational series Unemployment Cost Control - Managing Risk. All sessions are webinar based and registration is required. Course descriptions, dates and times are listed below. All webinar times are EDT/EST.

Sessions

Effectively managing unemployment claims

How an organization responds to its unemployment claims directly impacts the bottom line. Learn how to maximize technology to ensure that critical information is provided to workforce agencies while eliminating wasted time and effort.

Session 1	April 9	2:00 pm
-----------	---------	---------

Registration link

CLICK HERE

Witness preparation

Appeal hearings are complex and require first-hand witness participation and supporting documentation. Learn about the hearing process and how to prepare witnesses or to be a witness. We will present several case studies to provide real-world examples.

Session 2	May 7	2:00 pm
-----------	-------	---------

Registration link

CLICK HERE

Documentation, documentation, documentation

We will cover how proper documentation is critical to winning claims and can even prevent separations – the best way to reduce claim costs. This course is designed for the entire team including human resources, front-line managers and supervisors.

Session 3	June 11	2:00 pm
-----------	---------	---------

Registration link

CLICK HERE

Tax strategies

Get ready for unemployment tax rate season. We will review the overall process and how it impacts your organization, as well as how you can reduce tax costs by taking advantage of special saving opportunities and tax planning.

Session 4	November 12	2:00 pm
-----------	-------------	---------

Registration link

CLICK HERE

WEBINAR REGISTRATION

To register:

Click on the "Click Here" link under the session(s) you want to attend. The webinar registration page will open. Click on the "Register" button and complete the registration form.

Questions:

Contact us at ucwebinars@sedgwick.com